

Soaringwords' Educational Outreach Initiatives

SOARINGWORDS' MISSION is to inspire ill children and their families to take active roles in self-healing. Soaringwords is unique as it is the only organization that motivates ill children and their families to "pay it forward" because when an ill child does something kind for another child it accelerates transformative healing.

Soaringwords has shared curricula and pro-social programs in school-wide assemblies, in the classroom, and in after-school clubs with more than 50,000 students grades K-12. Using a successful combination of expressive arts projects (such as SoaringFables, SoaringSuperheroes, SoaringHaikus and SoaringMuseums) and positive psychology videos (with more than 100 leading experts), Soaringwords is considered a best-practice partner by leading educational organizations including the NYC public schools, Indianapolis public schools, KIPP Schools, Boys & Girls Clubs, and schools in 28 cities around the world.

Soaringwords builds connections and community

Throughout the year, students can enjoy Soaringwords' curricula and immersive pay-it-forward activities that will be donated to hospitalized children in local communities. Soaringwords' programs and curricula can be embedded into your school on a weekly, bi-monthly, monthly or quarterly basis.

Soaringwords was a foundational part of building character-strengths and civic-engagement into our students. It is a wonderful collaboration that enhanced the lives of our young students, our teachers, and benefitted ill children in our community.

I am so impressed with the orchestration of a service program like this with 75 students and dozens of volunteers. The students felt that they were treated like adults as they teamed up and worked together. I was surprised when my students "found their voice" at the end of the weekly sessions. I have been involved with many service projects throughout the years and this one was exceptional.
